To Whom It May Concern,

I've known Mark Albert for many years. He's been a very good friend and in time of need for legal services representing our Company, he's proven to be a brilliant and gifted lawyer.

I know how intelligent Mark is, and that he has impressive credentials regarding his law degrees, but working with him, representing and defending our Company I discovered another side, demonstrating strength, strategic planning and a no-nonsense approach in representing us to the other side.

His well thought out strategy in the end enabled us to succeed in winning our case. I highly recommend Mark and his team.
